

Underhåll 2012, 13-16 March Europe's leading maintenance fair

Underhåll has been held at the Swedish Exhibition & Congress Centre, Gothenburg, Sweden, every other year since 1984. It is the only trade fair in Sweden focusing on maintenance and reliability. The statistics from Underhåll 2008 and 2010 shown below have been verified by the independent company, Scandinavian Fair Control.

Visitors come from all sectors, mainly from manufacturing industries. The main target groups are involved in maintenance, technical matters, production, operations, site and property management, purchasing, engineering, and various levels of company management.

The hub of Scandinavian industry

70% of all Scandinavian industry is located within 500 km of Gothenburg, as are the Danish, Norwegian and Swedish capitals. Gothenburg is easy to reach by road, rail, sea or air.

The Swedish Exhibition & Congress Centre complex has a wide range of restaurants to suit all tastes, and Scandinavia's biggest hotel, Hotel Gothia Towers, all under one roof. It is located right in the centre of Gothenburg, Sweden's second largest city, and well served by transport (the airport coach stops outside the exhibition centre).

You are of, course, most welcome to book space/discuss exhibiting at Underhill 2012 by contacting me or one of our international representatives listed below.
